

Albuquerque was the proud host of the USA Indoor Track & Field Championships at the Albuquerque Convention Center.

Placing New Mexico center stage, The USA Indoor Track & Field Championships is the final event of the Indoor Visa Championship Series, which is a prestigious series of nationally televised USA Track & Field competitions featuring the very best track & field athletes from Team USA, the world's #1 track team. Approximately 400 athletes competed for a total prize purse of $130,000 and U.S. athletes competed for the title of National Champion.
